

GLASGOW BATTALION

The Boys' Brigade

ANCHOR SECTION ACTIVITIES

COLOURING COMPETITION

Christmas

This session we will be having two Anchor Section art competitions, the first is the Christmas Colouring and in the spring we will have a paper plate decorating one.

The picture for Christmas is attached, it is an Angel telling the Shepherds that Jesus has been born.

Please photocopy as required, it is also available for download from the Battalion website, or visit the Battalion office if you'd like paper copies.

For companies wishing to enter the competition, the colouring sheet should be completed at some point during a normal Anchor Section meeting. Crayons, pencils or felt tip pens can be used to colour in the picture.

Please ensure that each entry has name (first name and surname), school year (P1, P2 or P3) and company number written on it, preferably on the back.

We are aware that this activity is being used as a District event in some parts of the Battalion, if that is the case for your District you should submit your pictures to your District Organiser who will arrange a local judging and then pass all entries from your District to the Battalion Office.

Entries should be returned to the Battalion office by Monday 17th December.

The Angel tells the Shepherds Jesus is Born!