(Luke 6:47-49) - (NRSV)

I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them. (48) That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built. (49) But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against it, immediately it fell, and great was the ruin of that house."

(Luke 7:6-9) - (NRSV)

And Jesus went with them, but when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; (7) therefore I did not presume to come to you. But only speak the word, and let my servant be healed. (8) For I also am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and the slave does it." (9) When Jesus heard this he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, he said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith."

(Luke 10:25-37) (NRSV)

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" (26) He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" (27) He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." (28) And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." (29) But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" (30) Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. (31) Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. (32) So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. (33) But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. (34) He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. (35) The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' (36) Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" (37) He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

(Luke 15:1-10) (NRSV)

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. (2) And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." (3) So he told them this parable: (4) "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? (5) When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. (6) And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' (7) Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. (8) "Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? (9) When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' (10) Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

(Luke 15:21-24) (NRSV)

Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' (22) But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe--the best one--and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. (23) And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; (24) for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

(Luke 17:11-19 NRSV)

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. (12) As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, (13) they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" (14) When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. (15) Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. (16) He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. (17) Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? (18) Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" (19) Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

(Luke 19:1-10) (NRSV)

He entered Jericho and was passing through it. (2) A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. (3) He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. (4) So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. (5) When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." (6) So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. (7) All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." (8) Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." (9) Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (10) For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."
