

Junior Section Sports

Thursday 16 January 2020

Emirates Arena

1000 London Road, Glasgow, G40 3HG

Registration 6.15pm

First events start 6.30pm, we aim to finish at 9.30pm.

This session the Battalion will be holding the Junior Section Sports Evening at the Emirates Arena on Thursday 16 January. This event is open to all Junior Sections within the Battalion and results will be available to Districts to enable them to hold their own event within this, if desired.

- There will be four events for each age group 60m and 200m running, long jump and Shot Putt, there is no limit on the number of Boys from each Section in each event.
- There will also be two team events, 4x60m relay and tug of war. Sections may enter one team in each event. A Relay Team should include one Boy from each year group plus a fourth from any year group. A Tug-of-War Team should have two Boys from each year group. In each event Boys from P4 may compete in place of a P5 or P6 Boys and P5 Boys may take the place of P6 Boys.
- 60m and 200m running events will be timed with the fastest six going through to the final from which Battalion medals will be awarded. Where a District is holding their own event, medals may be awarded based on the results of the final and then heat timings.
- In long jump and shot putt, distances will be measured, medals being awarded based on distance.

Each Section taking part should designate a leader to be in charge of their team.

We are looking for volunteers to assist with running of the events, including - the timing of races, measuring of distances and recording of results, please contact the Battalion Office with names.

In order to be easily identifiable all leaders attending are asked to wear uniform, those assisting with the running of events will be given hi-vis vests.
