Training Credit Session 2018-2019

The Battalion are supporting the three strands of the Brigade Development Plan, Growth, Quality & Voice which fits in to the new Raise the Bar initiative publicised in the latest issue of the Gazette. As part of this a new Training Credit Scheme has been established to promote the Quality strand of the plan.

Every Company has been allocated a £50 credit to be used during session 2018-2019. The credit amount can be used to cover the cost or part cost of Building Your Skills, Skills for Queen's Badge, Queen's Badge Completion, Youth Leader Training or any other fee based course delivered by the Glasgow Battalion Training Team.

Companies who do not have Boys participating on advanced awards at this time can take the opportunity to look at additional modular training options within the Youth Leader Training Course. If you have Leaders and Helpers working in a different section from that chosen at their original YLT course, training is available for the specific sectional module that would build on their existing skills. Another option is to register staff for a refresher course on one or more of the subjects delivered over the duration of the course. These include:- Programme Planning & Awards, Anchor & Junior Games, Storytelling, Figure Marching, Faith Development & Worship.
